From Cairngorm summit

Hello! Welcome to the Glenrinnnes page. As I write this schools go back. I hope you all had a welcome and relaxing holiday. Recently my wife and I had a day out with family and grandchildren to the top of Cairngorm via the funicular railway. I was amazed at the panorama all around after a dismal and wet few days. The last time I remember being at the top was about 40 years ago. My usual view of the Cairngorms is from my walks up Ben Rinnes or travelling past on the A9. What a different picture you get on a lovely day from such a height. Worth another visit sometime soon. Anyone want to walk to the summit of Cairngorm? Contact Derek Clark on 01340 820377.

Events worth a note – After our AGM mentioned in the last edition, our Events Calendar has been arranged.

Rainbow Whist was arranged for Wednesday evenings during July and I would like to thank all who turned up to play and enjoyed the company over a hand of cards. Although not on the Programme of Events I would like to try and organise a ‘one off’ evening nearer Christmas. Look out for the posters.

Last BIG BREAKFAST this year will be held on Sunday 18th September.

MACMILLAN – the annual charity fund-raising event will be on October 2nd. I know this clashes with the Whisky Festival but we feel that Macmillan will always encourage a good turn out. It could be beneficial for those with a fuzzy head from the night before!
